Normandy and Paris

Swiss Winter Escapade
The Normandy beaches, of course, are inextricably linked with World War II. But there is so much more to this pastoral region than its hedge rowed battlefields. Shifting light and shadows play over gently rolling hills and shores that have seen history change course. Half-timbered houses lean over ancient streets and cows amble through peaceful meadows and orchards of crooked apple trees. The rich tang of creamy cheeses and the warm glow of Calvados brandy please the palate as your senses thrill to the palpable history of tranquil villages and the gentle countryside. The cosmopolitan city of Paris, with its world-renowned monuments, fashionable avenues and chic shops, serves as a pleasing conclusion to this unique program.
