Abstract:        A collection of pamphlets from the Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education at the West, and related materials. Primarily annual reports from various organizations with some addresses and speeches.

This finding aid was completed in November, 2012 by Alice Mitchell. Contents of finding aid are subject to changes and updates as necessary.
Historical Note
The Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education at the West, founded in 1843, was sponsored by Presbyterians and Congregationalists. It merged with the American Education Society in 1874 to form the American Education and College Society, both Congregationalist organizations. This body later changed their name to the Congregational Education Society in 1894, which later merged into the Congregationalist Foundation for Education in 1927, and then the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational and Christian Churches in 1936.

Scope and Contents
This collection contains pamphlets published by the Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education at the West, and related materials between 1844 and 1898, primarily including annual reports, addresses, and speeches.

Item level inventory available.

Arrangement Note
This collection has been compiled over the years through separate accessions of various sizes from various offices and individuals, none of which has any accompanying documentation. The original order of the documents is unknown. The arrangement order presented here has been imposed by the College Archives staff.

The original box arranged the pamphlets into two groups. This grouping is reflected in the two archival boxes in this collection, and College Archives staff arranged materials chronologically within those two groups.
