Great Places to Study at Beloit College

Academic Buildings:

- Any classroom can be used for study when a class is not being held in it.
- Campbell:
  - Kemper computer lab
  - Classroom in the lowest level
- Godfrey:
  - Study lounge, 1st floor
- Morse-Ingersoll:
  - Many classrooms
  - Fireplace Lounge on second floor
  - Ground floor has rooms that are rarely used
- Science Center:
  - Each floor has a seminar room that is sometimes used for department meetings or classes.
  - Student offices are available for science majors; others can also study there.
  - Atrium has tables and comfortable seating.
  - Each floor has an area with small tables and comfortable seating.
- World Affairs Center:
  - Language Lab on second floor
  - Smaller - "conference type" rooms on lowest level

635 College (Writing Center/Faculty Offices)
- 1st floor classroom (porch)

Pearsons: (food allowed)

- Moore Study lounge on 2nd floor
- Java Joint, ground floor
- DKs, Mathers, Weeks Lounge, TV Lounge, and the Mead room on first floor
- Cubicles on 2nd floor by elevator
- 24hr computer lab, ground floor
- Clubhouse, 3rd floor

Library: (covered beverages only)

- Study Cubicles on first floor by windows
- Group study rooms at the back of first floor
- Lots of tables and reading areas on all floors
- Computer lab, lower level

Residential Buildings:

- Aldrich and Maurer have study lounges; Maurer has a study room by the link
- Many floors have lounges; some are good for studying
- Haven has a conference room in basement
- Sororities and Fraternities generally have designated study hours for their houses
- Intercultural Center, 609 basement
- Chapin 24hr computer lab

Around Campus:

- Poetry garden (outside) in front of Logan museum
- Behind 635 College (Writing Center)
- Outside in Chapin Quad or Aldrich Field
- Eaton Chapel