ADVERTISING:

Placement of advertising for faculty positions is done by the respective departments and will be charged to the recruiting budget. Ads for open positions may not be placed until the personnel requisition form has been returned to the Human Resources Office with all approved signatures. Ad copy must be reviewed and approved by Director of Human Resources prior to ad placement. Please confirm approval to place job ad and account number with Kathryn Johnson, Ext. 2263 or johnsonka@beloit.edu.

Beloit College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, physical or mental disabilities, or other bases prosecutable by law. All Ads should include the following anti-racism statement:

Because equity and inclusion are central to our students' liberal education and vital to the thriving of all members of our residential learning community, Beloit College aspires to be an actively anti-racist institution. We recognize our aspiration as ongoing and institution-wide, involving collective commitment and accountability. We welcome employees who are committed to and will actively contribute to our efforts to celebrate our cultural and intellectual richness and be resolute in advancing inclusion and equity. We encourage all interested individuals meeting the criteria of the described position to apply.

Located in a diverse community close to Madison, Milwaukee, and Chicago, Beloit is a selective undergraduate liberal arts college that attracts students from across the United States and the world. The college emphasizes excellence in teaching, learning beyond the traditional classroom, international perspectives, and collaborative research among students and faculty. It is recognized as one of the Colleges That Change Lives. AA/EEO

Posting of the ads on-campus and on the college website will be done by Human Resources. Please forward a copy of the advertisement via E-mail to: buea@beloit.edu.
