Brief history of the Morocco Exchange Program

Beloit College and Al Akhawayn University entered into an exchange relationship in 1998, after a Beloit student enjoyed a semester in Ifrane in 1997. The first Moroccan students began their coursework in Beloit in January 1999. Since 1999, nearly 40 Beloit students have taken the opportunity to study at this Moroccan university and more than 30 students from AUI have come to Beloit College.
