The Program
Students will analyze multiculturalism and diversity in the hotel, restaurant and tourism workplace. Throughout this course, students will learn about managing a diverse workforce in a logical and meaningful manner through understanding self perspectives, group identities and workplace strategies. This course will allow students to gain a unique perspective on Hospitality Diversity Management by being submerged into another culture, having the opportunity to attend the 10th annual conference on “Diversity Organizations, Communities and Nations” in Belfast, Ireland and by taking part in field excursions. Presentations will be made by some of Belfast’s top business HR directors and general managers. Cultural excursions include the Belfast Zoo, a show at the Grand Opera House and the Belfast Castle.

Lodging and Meals
Students will be staying hostels or hotels throughout the duration of the trip and will be responsible for purchasing daily meals.

Course Information
Upon successful completion, students will receive 3 credits in
• HT 350—Hospitality Diversity Management
• Credit towards the Racial and Ethnic Studies category

Program Fee – $3280
The program cost will be determined by the number of participants and shortly after the application deadline. The program cost includes tuition and fees, health insurance, international student ID card, housing, local transportation and airfare. Passport fees, meals and personal expenses are not included in the program costs and are paid directly by the students.
