Experiencing the Environment at the Welty Environmental Center
Ashley Lanham ‘12, Beloit College Sustainability Fellows Program
Summer 2011

What is the Welty Environmental Center?
- Environmental education center connected to Beckman Mill County Park
- Mission: Provide environmental experiences to foster environmental stewardship
- Where sustainable development is realized through education and socialization

Why are Welty programs successful?
- Fun with nature!
- Age-appropriate activities
- Thoughtfully designed curriculum
- Dedicated staff
- Volunteers

Summer and Fall 2011 Programming
- Day camps
- Library programs
- Water activities
- Nature hikes
- Field trips
  - “Green Fire” documentary, Sept. 9
  - Heritage Days, Sept. 11
  - Scrap metal drive, Sept. 24
  - Fall hikes, throughout October

Acknowledgements
Thank you to Lena Verkuilen, the Welty Environmental Center Director, for her infinite wisdom and mentorship. Many thanks to the Sustainability Fellows Program and Yaffa Grossman for this opportunity.